EVENT OVERVIEW

Indiana high school bowlers are invited to meet and showcase their skills to several coaches of the country's top collegiate programs at the 2012 IHSB Collegiate Challenge. High school bowlers interested in competing at the collegiate level are encouraged to take advantage of this unique opportunity. The IHSB Collegiate Challenge will take place following the second day of the 2011 NAIA Invitational at Western Bowl. The Challenge will implement the same difficult sport conditions under which the collegians compete, thus allowing participants to better measure and test the strength of their games. It will also provide participants a great venue to meet college coaches and gain a better understanding of the recruiting process. In addition, all entrants will have a short bio included in the Collegiate Coaches Information Booklet that will be circulated to all coaches with teams participating in the 2012 NAIA Invitational.
